

Colwith Farm

DISTILLERY

Thank you for considering Colwith Farm Distillery to host for your special occasion.

Please find answers to some frequently asked questions below:

- How many guests can you host?
Our smallest group booking is for 25 guests. We can go up to 150 guests.
- Do you provide food?
Currently we do not provide food and request guests source an outside caterer. We can provide electric and water for caterers at no extra charge.
- Can I arrange entertainment?
100%. We have plenty of space for entertainment be it a band or DJ.
- Do you provide tables and chairs?
We have traditional bar stools in the upcycled bar. We have picnic tables for up to 60 guests that can be provided free of charge. You can arrange your own tables and chairs if you prefer.
- Is the distillery wheelchair friendly?
Yes. Our distillery was built in 2018 to current DDA standards. The whole facility is on one level, we have one disabled toilet, and all floor finishes are level concrete with the exception of the car park which is gravel chippings.
- Will it be warm enough?
Yes, our upcycled bar has central heating and during colder periods we provide additional space heating in the main distillery at no extra cost.
- Do you have a bar?
Yes, we have an amazing bar with an expert team serving the finest local tipples as well as select wines supplied by our friends at Ellis Wharton Wines.
- Can we bring our own drinks?

Colwith Farm

DISTILLERY

Unfortunately not. We keep our venue hire charges low based on running the bar in house.

- What are your operating hours?

We can host your event any day with the facility being available from 9am through to 11pm. We are a licensed premises and considerate towards our staff and neighbours.

- How much does it cost?

Smaller groups of 50 guests or less can access our upcycled bar area, snug and outside terrace for the price of £250 including VAT.

Larger groups of up to 150 guests will access in the main distillery floor, our upcycled bar area, snug and outside terrace for the price of £500 including VAT.

To secure your booking we require payment in full and will send an invoice for payment via BACS.

Please fill in the online form or give us a call during normal business hours on 01208 873967 as we would be delighted to discuss your forthcoming special occasion!